

HARTLAND

independence expertise
results

Bradley E. Turner | Chief Operating Officer

INDEPENDENCE | Community Commitments & Personal Interests

Brad is a director and current Chairman of Holden Forests & Gardens, and serves as a director of The Union Club Foundation and The Hunger Network of Greater Cleveland.

EXPERTISE | Career Accomplishments & Education

Brad was appointed to his current position in January 2014 having served in a variety of management roles since joining Hartland following its merger with Chess Financial Corporation. Brad joined Chess as Chief Investment Officer in April 2006 and was named President in January 2011. Prior to Chess, Brad spent several years with Fidelity Investments and 21 years with McDonald Investments and KeyCorp in a variety of management roles. Brad is a graduate of Denison University and earned a MBA from the College of William & Mary's Mason School of Business.

RESULTS | Responsibilities at Hartland

Brad is Chief Operating Officer of Hartland. He oversees the ongoing business operations of the company.

“Many firms claim to deliver comprehensive wealth management. Only a few have created the organization to do so. Hartland is one of those firms.”

CONTACT BRADLEY E. TURNER

To contact Brad, call us at 216-621-1090, email him HERE or use our contact request form