Carolyn A. Mekhail | Senior Analyst, Research

INDEPENDENCE | Community Commitments & Personal Interests

Originally from St. Louis, Carolyn enjoys exploring Cleveland when outside of the office. Visiting the multitude of beautiful parks, antique stores and museums has been a great way to become familiarized with the area. In her free time, Carolyn enjoys reading, sewing projects, trying out new dessert recipes and spending time with friends and family.

EXPERTISE | Career Accomplishments & Education

Carolyn joined Hartland in the summer of 2014 as a Research Analyst. Prior to joining Hartland, she was an Equity Analyst at Howe & Rusling located in Rochester, New York. Carolyn completed her Master of Science in Finance in 2012 at the Simon Graduate School of Business and earned her BA in Business Economics at The College of Wooster in 2011.

RESULTS | Responsibilities at Hartland

As a Senior Research Analyst, Carolyn is responsible for evaluating and monitoring various international and emerging market equity funds as well as supporting the consultants with equity related inquiries. Conducting manager reviews, analyzing fund statistics and forming investment recommendations are integral parts of the due diligence process.

“I was attracted to Hartland because of the intellectually challenging work and collegial culture.”
