Douglas J. Lukcso | Managing Director

INDEPENDENCE | Community Commitments & Personal Interests

Doug and his wife Maggie enjoy spending time raising their three busy and energetic young children. They serve as the taxi service for their children's many Parish School of Religion classes, basketball and soccer games, gymnastics classes, birthday parties, and other events. In his spare time, Doug enjoys family outings to Cedar Point, Kelleys Island, Put-in-Bay, and other places near the water. He also enjoys visiting with family, friends and neighbors.

EXPERTISE | Career Accomplishments & Education

Doug joined Hartland in 2015 with the acquisition of Lancaster Pollard Investment Advisory Group. Doug has more than 23 years experience with investment markets, with the last 17 years spent advising foundations, endowments and nonprofit organizations on their investment and spending policies, investment strategies, asset allocation design, investment manager searches, ongoing reporting, and due diligence processes. He has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Bowling Green State University.

RESULTS | Responsibilities at Hartland

As a Managing Director, Doug serves institutional clients, reviewing monthly and quarterly performance results, investment goals and objectives, asset allocation, investment policy statements, manager searches, and due diligence. Doug's clients include endowments, foundations, hospitals, colleges and universities.

“Hartland is the perfect firm for mid-sized, but prominent endowments, foundations, and hospitals”
