

HARTLAND

independence expertise results

Monica A. Fletcher | Administrative Assistant

INDEPENDENCE | Community Commitments & Personal Interests

When not at work, Monica enjoys spending time with her fiancé and three cats, reading large stacks of books she takes out from her local library on a weekly basis, trying new dinner recipes, and tending to her flower gardens. She also takes numerous dance classes at her local community arts center as well as volunteers for their yearly dance recital. Additionally, Monica enjoys attending various theater productions at Playhouse Square and other local theaters in the Greater Cleveland area. She also loves attending or watching a good Indians game.

EXPERTISE | Career Accomplishments & Education

Prior to joining Hartland, Monica was a Graduate Assistant at the Cleveland State University Writing Center, where she served as a tutor while completing her M.A. in Literature. Monica also holds a B.A. in English from Lake Erie College. Currently, Monica's volunteer efforts are focused on school choice and education, and serves as a School Board member for five, Greater Cleveland area public charter schools: Frederick Douglass Reclamation Academy, George V. Voinovich Reclamation Academy, Northeast Ohio College Preparatory School, Cleveland College Preparatory School, and University of Cleveland College Preparatory School.

RESULTS | Responsibilities at Hartland

As an Administrative Assistant, Monica provides support to the Hartland institutional consulting team. This includes meeting scheduling, travel arrangements, and special projects. Monica also oversees timely shipment of clients' quarterly evaluation reports and performs executive administrative duties.

CONTACT MONICA A. FLETCHER

To contact Monica, call us at 216-621-1090, email him HERE or use our contact request form